Alphington Primary School is looking for an enthusiastic and experienced teaching assistant to support a key pupil with SEND. The successful applicant will have a sound understanding of delivering an alternative curriculum based on building positive relationships to support a child on a 1-2-1 basis and to support the transition into class.

We are looking for a motivated, resilient team player with experience of working with children with a range of needs. A positive and encouraging attitude is essential, as is kindness, patience, and an ability to use your initiative.

You will need to have experience of working alongside staff to plan and deliver a differentiated curriculum and timetable based on the specific needs of one child or small group of children. We are looking for applicants who are dedicated to making a difference to children's lives and to ensure every child has the opportunities they deserve.

We are looking for individuals with the following qualities: -

- Experience of working with children with additional needs
- Experience of delivering 1:1 and/or small group interventions
- A positive and encouraging attitude
- Kindness and patience
- An understanding of the importance of relational practice
- An ability to work within a team

Exeter Learning Academy Trust (ELAT) is a partnership of primary schools based in Exeter. The Trust currently has four schools: Alphington Primary School, Bowhill Primary School, Ide Primary School and St Thomas Primary School.

Our aim is to be a people-focused organisation with strong principles of enabling every child and adult within our Trust to thrive. We have high aspirations for all our children, regardless of their starting point, and in turn, expect our staff to have high aspirations of themselves. We believe that our strength lies in working together and using our collective skills and expertise to benefit the children in our schools.

We are committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expect all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. An enhanced DBS check is required for this post.
